

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, September 26. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Sept. 23.

Madrid, Sept. 7.

ON the first Advice of the arrival of the Enemies Fleet before Cadiz, the Queen order'd the Council to meet, and offer'd to go herself to Andalusia, if it were judged that her Presence might animate her Subjects. She has offered likewise to sell her Jewels or take up Money upon them, if in the present Juncture there should be occasion for a Sum of ready Money to put the Troops upon their March. The Chapter of the Cathedral of Seville, have sent to the Marquis de Villadarias 4000 Crowns and 1000 Sacks of Corn. The Archbishop of Seville President of Castille, has order'd his Agents to remit to Cadiz all the ready Money that they have of his in their Hands, and has offer'd the Revenues of his Archbishoprick to be employ'd in the Charge of the Hospital of Cadiz, and other needful expences. Several Noblemen that have Lands in Andalusia have taken leave of the Queen to go thither and provide for the Defence of the Country. The Council of Seville hath order'd a remittance to Cadiz of 10000 Pistoles, and 8000 more to the Marquis de Villadarias. Cardinal Portocarrero levys at his own Charge 360 Horse. The City of Madrid hath furnish'd 40000 Ducats towards the pressing occasions of the Government. The City of Seville, besides the Sums sent from thence to the Marquis de Villadarias, raises 12 Troops of Horse, and a greater number of Foot. The Chapter of the Cathedral, hath given 10000 Pistoles, and a great quantity of Corn. The City of Xeres and the Nobility of the Country have form'd several Bodys of Horse; Corduba has furnish'd 4 Troops, and Cardinal Salazar Bishop of Corduba, is raising and will maintain at his own Cost a Regiment of Foot of 1000 Men, and the Chapter hath contributed 1000 Pistoles. The City of Malaga will raise 4 Troops of Horse and 6 of Foot, and the Marquis de Miraflores will raise a Troop of 40 Horse, the Town of Ronda is raising 600 Men Horse and Foot. The City of Granada levys a Regiment of 500 Horse in Ten Troops, besides 1000 Foot which maintains it likewise, and a Cannon of the same Town has given a great quantity of Corn. The Towns of Jaen, Ubeda, and Baeca levy forces likewise, and Ecija raises 18 Troops of Horse and Foot. Carmona, Antequera, Hoya, Malaga, and Valadolid, have already sent some Troops, Ammunition and Provisions; and the Nobles and People are arming and getting ready to march on the 7th. Toledo, Segovia, Salamanca, Guadalaxara, and several other Citys furnish considerable Sums: and we have Advice that all the other Towns of the Kingdom offer to contribute in proportion to their Abilities. Orders are given for the raising of a Regiment of Horse of 24 Troops which is to be call'd the Queens Regiment; and will be commanded by reform'd Officers. Since the Enemy appear'd on the Coasts, divers copies of a Manifesto in the Name of the Prince of Hesse Darmstadt have been dispers'd, in which the Clergy and Nobility are exhorted to maintain the Right of the House of Austria. Seditious Papers have been affix'd in several places of this City, of which Copies were sent to some private Men by the ordinary Post from Portugal, who have deliver'd them into the hands of the Magistrates. A Priest and a Domestick of the Ambassador of Savoy, who had formerly serv'd the Count d'Arach, have been seiz'd for dispersing those Papers.

From the Camp at Luzara, Sept. 12.

The Armys are encamp'd in the same posts; there are a great many sick in each Camp, particularly in that of the Germans which is straiten'd for Room, and situate in a moist Ground; insomuch that we are assur'd there are entire Battalions unfit for Service. The K. of Spain has often expos'd himself in visiting the Trenches before Guastalla, and has distributed Money to the Soldiers. On the 9th Count Solari who commanded in Guastalla offer'd to capitulate, which the Count de Vaubecourt who commanded the Siege consented to. The chief Articles being, That the Imperial Infantry should go out with their Arms and Baggage, Drum beating, March lighted, and Colours flying, with 20 charges of Ammunition a Man, and march to Trent the nearest way, passing the Po over the Bridge of the Allies at Luzara, from thence to Marcara, Borghetto, and Villa franca, taking the Road between the Adige and the Lake of Garda directly to Trent. That the Horse and Dragoons should march out on Foot. That the Baggage of the Troops of Guastalla that is in Bersello should be permitted to joyn them, and likewise all their Horses, Mules and Equipage from Prince Eugene's Camp. That Count Solari and all the Officers and Soldiers of the Garrison of Guastalla, should oblige themselves on their Parole of Honour, not to bear Arms, nor do any Service, against the King of Spain nor his Allies, before the 1st of April. The Place was deliver'd up on the 10th, and the Garrison march'd out on the 11th to the number of 1800 Men carrying Arms, besides 400 Sick or Wounded.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, Dated Sept. 22.

Private Letters from our Army in Italy say that the great number of the Sick, particularly of Officers, will prevent the Duke de Vendome from besieging Bersello.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, Dated Sept. 28.

The Journal of the Imperialists encamp'd at Luzara from the 4th of Sept. to the 10th Inclusive.

On the 4th the Majors St. Amour and Pfefferskorn brought in a Lieutenant and Nine Soldiers Prisoners, having kill'd 40. They not only dispers'd the Enemy's Foragers, but put their Convoy to the Rout, and gave such an Alarm to their Army, that they caus'd their Piquet to advance. We lost Baron Waseg a Captain, and 1 Trooper. We have begun to exchange our Prisoners according to the Cartel. 5. Late last Night we heard great Shooting towards Guastalla, to day we forag'd, under a Guard of 200 Horse commanded by Lieut. Coll. Erbeville, in which we had 2 Horses wounded. 6. We hear from Ostiglia that 4 Companies of the Regiment of the Rhingrave are arriv'd there. Deserters report that the Enemy lost above 100 Men last Night before Guastalla. Nothing has pass'd betwixt the 2 Armies except exchanging a few Cannon Shot. 7. We forag'd to day under the Convoy of Lieut. Coll. Martini, losing only only 1 Trooper and 4 Horses. The Troops of Wolfenbittel, 1480. in number, are arriv'd at St. Benedetto, where they will rest for a day or two. 8. The Small-shot of the Garrison of Guastalla was continued vigorously last Night. Capt. Szius of the Regiment of Ebergeni went out with a Party yesterday on the other side of the Mincio : between Goito and Mantua he lighted on 18 Waggons loaded with Powder and other Ammunition, convoy'd by 40 Men, whom he cut in pieces, brought away the Horses, blew up the Powder, and burnt the rest. We have 3 more Parties abroad. 9. Towards Evening we receiv'd 211 of our Men that were made Prisoners in the Fight at Santa Vittoria. We have Advice that Guastalla began to capitulate to day. General Solari has defended that Place 11 days, tho' very ill provided with Ammunition and Provisions, without any Outworks or Ramparts, and where they had not time so much as to make a Ditch and plant Palisadoes. 10. Our Left Wing has forrag'd without loss. Major Spleny has cut off 30 Men near the Enemy's Guard, and brought in 2 Prisoners with 41 Horses and Oxen. The Major of the Regiment of Palfi is gone out upon a Party with 300 Horse.

From the Leyden Gazette, Dated Sept. 28.

Rome, Sept. 9. Cardinal Grimani in an Audience which he had of the Pope on the 3d, demanded Winter Quarters of him for part of the Imperial Army in the Ferrarese, when Prince Eugene should think fit to end the Campaign; but his Holyness excus'd himself, declaring that he would hold the Balance even, and give no Umbrage to either of the Partys that are in Arms in Italy. Since the Battel of Luzara above 300 Deserters, most French, are come into this City, but the Pope will not suffer any of them to be lifted in his new Levys.

Naples, Sept. 5. The Count de Tholouse, who is at Messina, has receiv'd Orders to return to Thoulon with his Squadron.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

Basil, Sept. 13. The unexpected incursion of the Bavarians into Swabia has mightily alarm'd us, and we are not a little apprehensive that they design to break into Tyrol to cut off all Succours from the Imperialists in Italy : mean time we keep upon our Guard. The Romish Cantons are not all agreed upon the renewing of the Milanese Capitulation with the K. of Spain, tho' some are very zealous for it. P. S. The Imperial Ambassador has given the Canton of Zurick an assurance in Writing that the Commerce which he so lately broke off, shall be no longer interrupted between the Subjects of the Emperor and that Canton, but be free and open as formerly.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, Dated Sept. 25. They write from Bern of the 18th, that the 8 Romish Cantons have positively renew'd the Treaty of Alliance with the K. of Spain for the conservation of the Dutchy of Milan, and have resolv'd in consequence thereof to levy the forces stipulated by the same.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 30.

Ratisbon, Sept. 31. Cardinal Lamberg has sent a Trumpeter to demand of the Elector of Bavaria whether the Diet may sit safely and quietly in this City, or not.

Shields, Sept. 21. This Afternoon came into our Road, the Russia Fleet of 34 Merchant Ships, under Convoy of 2 Men of War.
